- 1 Cities of first class (state auditor). Excludes Rochester for at least five years from the section of law providing for the state auditor's powers and duties relating to cities of the first class.
 - 2 Taxable as costs (law library fee). Permits a county to use surplus law library funds for court facilities' costs.
 - 3, 5, 6, 8 (part) Publication. Sections 3 and 5 are technical changes. Section 6 (fixed by county board) strikes the requirement that a county publish (separately from its meeting minutes) the resolution setting county board member salaries and per diem payments. Minn. Stat. § 375.12, subd. 1, requires a county board to publish its official proceedings, which include the same information. Section 8, repeals §§ 279.07 and 279.08, specifying a bid process for county publication of delinquent real estate taxes lists.
 - 4, 8 (part) Alcohol enforcement account; appropriation. Strikes reference to § 340A.403, subd. 4, municipal report to the commissioner of public safety with liquor license information repealed in section 8.
 - 7, 8 (part) Ramsey County, community corrections department duties. Provides that the Ramsey County Community Corrections Department's duties are the same as those in Minn. Stat. ch. 401, general law governing community corrections. Section 8 repeals section 383A.404, subd. 5, Ramsey County Community Corrections Department duties (replaced by reference to general law governing community corrections).
 - 8 Repealer. In addition to those described above, repeals Minn. Stat. § 382.265 (county officer in need of additional clerks to petition the county board) and chapter 395 (the county seed and feed loan program).
